10 Page Magazine Check List - Use this to be sure you have done your project correctly.

- _____ Do you have thumbnail sketches?
- _____ Does your magazine have at least 10 pages?
- _____ Does it have labeled layers that make logical sense (background, boxes, pictures, text, etc.)?
- _____ Does your magazine have at least 2 articles?
- _____ Does your magazine have at least 2 ads (one on the back cover)?
- _____ Do you have a professional looking cover: Is there enough text to make it look like a real magazine cover? Are your articles on the cover? Are you using all of the tools you have learned this semester?) hierarchy stuff, design stuff, color stuff? Is this your own design or did you just copy another magazine cover?
- _____ Does your magazine have professional looking ads? Were they created in Illustrator? Did you place the Illustrator file in InDesign (correct) or did you place jpgs or pngs (incorrect)?
- _____ Are the article titles created with character styles?
- _____ Are the article layouts as creative and professional as you can possibly make them?
- _____ Is your body text created with paragraph styles?
- _____ Do you have two columns of text on each page?
- _____ Is your text threaded?
- _____ Is your body text 12 pts and black (check with me about exceptions)?
- _____ Is there a master page element on each page (except cover and ads)? Page numbers don't count.
- _____ Are all of the pages used appropriately (not just a bunch of blank pages at the end, articles and ads spaced appropriately)?
- _____ Are your page numbers applied with master pages? Is page one on the second page of your magazine?
- _____ Does your text look professional? Have you chosen the best possible font family, size, style? Have you used leading, kerning and tracking to make your text look as good as you can?
- _____ Is the magazine saved and uploaded to your Weebly site correctly?
